

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

SEC. 16. If ever upon examination any milk or milk products offered for sale or delivered in this city of East Chicago, Ind., is found to be unwholesome, adulterated, or impure, according to section 7 of this ordinance, the board of health or milk inspector shall, if deemed necessary, seize the same and destroy it or otherwise dispose of it; in such cases no compensation shall be made to owner thereof.

SEC. 17. No person producing milk or its products for sale, or selling milk or its products in any manner or form within the limits of the city of East Chicago, Ind., who publishes or makes any false statement in regard to cows from which he obtains milk, having been examined for tuberculosis or any other infectious disease under the provisions of this ordinance or makes any untrue or false statement regarding the condition of his herd and purity of his milk and premises from which his milk comes, the method of handling the same, cooling, and distributing of his milk and its products, shall be deemed guilty of the violation of this ordinance and be subject to penalties it imposes.

SEC. 18. The board of health is hereby authorized to purchase from time to time equipment as may be necessary for the purpose of testing milk and its products.

SEC. 19. Any person, company, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 90 days, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Nuisances—Manure—Premises—Privies—Garbage—Trash. (Ord. 517, Apr. 20, 1914.)

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, or corporation to place, deposit, permit, or have upon their premises in said city, or upon their premises within 2 miles of said city, whether owned or leased by them, any one or more of the following unclean, insanitary, fly-producing, disease-causing conditions, to wit:

(a) Animal manure in any quantity which is not securely protected from flies.

(b) Filthy, littered, or trash-covered cellars, house yards, barnyards, stable yards, factory yards, vacant areas in rear of stores, and vacant lots.

(c) Privies, vaults, cesspools, pits, or like places, which are not securely protected from flies and rats, or which are foul and malodorous.

(d) Garbage in any quantity which is not securely protected from flies in galvanized-iron receptacles.

(e) Trash, litter, rags, accumulations of empty barrels, boxes, crates, packing cases, excelsior, packing hay, straw, or other packing material, tin cans, lumber not neatly piled, or anything whatsoever in which flies or rats may breed or multiply, or which may be a fire danger.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the health officer, upon learning in any way whatsoever of the existence of one or more of the unlawful conditions described in section 1 of this ordinance, to notify the offender in writing, upon official blanks provided by the board of health, to remove or abate said unlawful conditions, stating reasonable time for such removal or abatement. In the event of refusal or neglect on the part of the notified offender to obey such order within the time limit named in said order, the health officer shall inform the street commissioner, upon a blank provided by the board of health, and it shall then be the duty of said official, and he shall have power and authority, to remove and abate the unlawful conditions; and he shall keep an accurate account of the cost and expenses thereof, which shall be paid from the city treasury, upon sworn vouchers of the street commissioner, and said cost and expenses shall be a lien upon the property, to be placed upon the tax duplicate by the city controller, and shall be collected by law as other taxes are collected and duly paid into the city treasury.

Garbage and Refuse—Care and Disposal. (Ord. 517, Apr. 20, 1914).

SEC. 3. The owner or owners, whether person, persons, firm, company, or corporation, of hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, cafés, saloons, flats, apartment houses, and private homes, shall, unless otherwise contracted for in writing between lessor and lessee, provide said hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, cafés, saloons, flats, apartment houses, and private homes with galvanized-iron fly-proof garbage cans, in sufficient number, of sufficient size, and of approved construction, to sanitarily care for and protect from flies all garbage produced by said hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, cafés, saloons, flats, apartment houses, and private homes, and the number of such garbage cans thus to be provided by such owner or owners shall not be less in number than one to and for each separate resident family, or of sufficient capacity for each apartment house.

SEC. 4. All garbage cans shall be placed and kept so the garbage collector can have ready and convenient access to the same, and said garbage cans shall be used to contain garbage only, and the term "garbage" shall include all kitchen and table refuse and remains of food substances, including waste paper, rags, sweepings, or other small, perfectly combustible material, but excluding all non-combustibles and heavy trash, which includes ashes, empty tin cans, empty bottles, empty glass cans, scrap iron, wire, metal articles, brick bats, broken stone or cement, broken crockery, broken glass, broken plaster, etc., and all such trash shall be kept in barrels, bins, or galvanized-iron receptacles, or neatly piled to the satisfaction of the street commissioner, entirely separate from the garbage, and all garbage and trash, and garbage and trash receptacles shall be conveniently placed and kept so the garbage and trash collectors may have ready and reasonable access to the same: Provided, That no such trash shall be kept, placed, or piled containing any foul, malodorous, or decomposing matter, or matter liable to decomposition, or matter that will attract and breed flies, or that will attract and harbor rats, or that will permit of being scattered, littered, or blown about: And provided further, That no hot ashes or ashes containing fire or fire coals shall be placed in any trash receptacle or ash bin unless the same be absolutely fireproof or of metal construction. All disputes as to the convenient placing or location of garbage and trash receptacles between any person and the street commissioner shall be finally settled by the health officer of the city health department.

SEC. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, or corporation to place or mix with any garbage or other substance to be collected and burned in the city garbage crematory any ashes or other noncombustible material or article too large to be burned.

SEC. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, or corporation to throw, scatter, or dump any ashes in or upon any alley, street, gutter, or public grounds within said city, except same be placed under the direction of the street commissioner.

SEC. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, or corporation, except upon written permission of the street commissioner first obtained, to place, dump, or deposit, for a period of over 72 hours, anything whatsoever in or upon alleys, streets, vacant lots, city grounds, parks, or public places: Provided,